Sea Cadets on Ocean Liner Bound for United Kingdom

LAC LA BICHE — Five Lac la Biche sea cadets, and Rev. J. E. McGrane, are now on the Atlantic aboard the CP steamer, Empress of France, bound for England.

The group will sail the Exeter on English rivers and across the English Channel on arrival in Europe.

Following is a letter received from Father McGrane:

Wed., July 20, '51.

"On board the C.P. Steamer, Empress of France with Lac la Biche sea cadets. We just left behind us the ancient Ville de Quebec. The Chateau Frontenac and the Plains of Abraham have faded into the mist and we are heading to the Atlantic Ocean. So far the trip has been a wonderful experience. Many newspaper interviews and radio broadcasts. Th western crew was entertained in Montreal at the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club, the guests of Mr. R. C. Stevenson, O.B.E., Naval Coordinator. At Montreal prior to sailing the cadets were met by CPR and Navy League officials. Capt. McMurray, eastern head of the steamships, gave a very cordial welcome to the "prairie mariners." The Captain of the Empress of Canada, Captain Dobson, personally welcomed Fr. McGrane and the four cadets aboard and invited them on the bridge as the big liner left Montreal. The Captain made the boys feel very welcome. To Fr. McGrane he said, "Padre make yourself at home and if there is anything you want for the cadets, come and see the boss." This certainly was a wonderful welcome and greatly appreciated. We did not see the Exeter after it left Lac la Biche until it was on the deck of the Empress, securely lashed down. The Canadian Pacific Steamships officials said that that was their job and what a good job they made of it, too! Captain Dobson also posed for quite a few press photographs with the crew of the Exeter. Naturally, the meals on board are wonderful. We hope we do not gain too much weight. We will have a holiday for a few days, but as the Exeter is on deck we will most likely give her a coat of paint and a do a little cleaning ship before we dock at Liverpool.

P.S. from Montreal, on board the Empress, a CBC broadcast was made to be beamed to the United Kingdom."

EDMONTON is expected to be on the intinerary of the Royal tour of Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh, according to an announcement from Ottawa which said all provincial capitals would be visited. Tour will be the first visit of the 25-year old princess to Canada and the nation's first Royal tour since the King and Queen were enthusiastically welcomed in 1939.

Picnic Success In Spite Of Weather

BREYNAT — On July 12 a picnic was held on Wandering River grounds. The main events of the day were hardball playing. Lac la Biche, Plamondon and Boyle were the visiting teams competing against Wandering River. The Wandering River team was the the winning team against all the rest and took all the prizes. The girls of Wandering River softball team took the first prize, when they won over the Charron girls.

The weather was cloudy and chilly, but a great audience turned out at the picnic.

In the booths they had hot-dogs, ice cream and refreshments. Everyone enjoyed themselves although it was a chilly day. To wind-up the day a dance was held in the evening and a very large crowd turned out to the affair. People from Athabasca, Boyle, Lac la Biche and Grassland were in attendance.

Mr. Mike Ilnicki from Blue Jay, was at the Wandering River picnic with his school bus, bringing many people from Blue Jay and Charron.

LAC LA BICHE — Hon. George Prudham, Federal Minister of Mines and Technical Surveys, said that plans are being made for the proposed $14,000,000 RCAF bombing and gunnery range in the general area of Lac la Biche.

The best sites for the air strips serving the ranges have not yet been determined.

Several thousands of square miles of territory east of Lac la Biche have been obtained through an agreement with the Alberta and Saskatchewan governments for the range.

The range will be constructed by Defence Construction Ltd., with the co operation of the Department of Transport.

Eager Beavers

The staff of the Department of Finance in Ottawa appear to be just a little over eager beaverish. They are eager to get every last penny in taxes, judging from the new table of Income Tax Deductions at Source, but are not so eager to pay interest on overpayments.

Deductions provided by the table which came into effect on July 1st have been increased to 100% of the tax and are, of course, some 25% higher than those in the previous table as was announced by the Minister of Finance last spring.

The catch is that mostly everyone these days makes charitable donations or has medical expenses high enough to reduce taxable income.

As a result most taxpayers will have too much taxes deducted from their pay. Inevitably a tremendous number of tax refund cheques will have to be sent out eventually and in all likelihood many more civil servants will have to be hired to look after the job.

There was not much wrong with the old system whereby 95% of the tax was deducted at the source. This meant that for a great many people at the end of the fiscal year taxes due and taxes paid evened out because of charitable donations, medical expenses and other deductible items.

We feel that many Canadians, realizing that their money overpaid in tax deductions does not bear interest, are resentful of the eager beaver attitude of the Department of Finance. Mr. Abbott might well reconsider his department's policy on payroll tax deductions and revert to the former, more equitable system.

Dawn Age Agricultural

The basic wealth of any country is its agriculture. Nations without an adequate supply of home-grown foods are often impoverished in the face of apparent wealth.

Take the ancient country of Persia, now called Iran, for instance. Though rich in oil resources, the people are poor because they do not have a healthy agricultural industry. Their equipment belongs to the dim, distant past. Their methods of farming are as old-fashioned as Noah's Ark.

It has been definitely established that an agricultural economy existed in Iran 6,000 years ago. Discoveries made near the Caspian Sea in northern Iran, by an archeological expedition from the University of Pennsylvania, included the remains of Neanderthal man and the bones of domesticated animals. Through radioactive tests it was established that these remains existed around 4,000 B.C.

Among the thousands of artifacts found by the expedition were sickle blades used for cutting grain, saws, knives, needles, chisels and other man-made implements chipped from flint cores or carved from antlers and horns; milling stones and mortars made from sandstone; and jewelry fashioned from seashells, jade and polished stone, and primitive baked pottery.

On the sickle blades, all of the fine-edged type, was found a coating derived from silica in the grain stems they cut. The crude pottery unearthed in the Neolithic levels gave further evidence of the growing and culture of grain in that ancient period.

Newcomers Get More Dollars

A recent change in the regulations governing amount of money to emigrants from the United Kingdom to Canada is good news to prospective newcomers to Canada. The British Government have agreed to increase the present one thousand pounds sterling, which may be converted into dollars in the first four years, by 25%. This is in respect to every dependent member of the emigrant's family, provided that the total does not exceed 2,000 pounds. In addition, consideration will be given to applications by emigrants to spend their blocked funds in Britain during their first four years, on personal effects and tools of their trade. Both concessions will apply to emigrants already in Canada as well as to those going out in the future.

The Bible Says:

"For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in the truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe."

—Thessalonians, 2:13.

Billy Offered to Do It

By T. W. PUE

The 1951 annual Edmonton Exhibition is passed and gone for another year, but it brought back to mind memories of earlier exhibitions—twenty years ago, when I saw the big grandstand show in Brandon, Man.

I used to sell the Brandon Daily Sun as a kid at the fair grounds, and did quite well at it, too. I bought papers at 1c per copy and sold them for 5c per copy, making, as one cattleman told me, "four hundred per cent profit." I sold as many as 100 copies a day and what I didn't spend on hot dogs and soft drinks I took home with me.

T. W. PUE

CRASHING THE GRANDSTAND

Most of the newsboys sold the bigger Winnipeg papers and none of them ever got a pass into the grandstand to sell their papers there. The first year, however, I had a pass which said "Admit Willie Pue, Brandon Sun newsboy, to main grounds and grandstand." I believe Miss Hannah Barlow, of the Sun office, can be credited with making out the pass this way and inattention of the signing official at the fair office can be credited with letting it go through. I could sell more papers at the grandstand then anywhere else but when the other kids complained that their passes didn't admit them to the big stand, that finished that. I never got another pass admitting me to the grandstand.

However, I always managed to get in, with the help of the clown, Billy Laurette. Each evening before the sale of tickets commenced, Boy Scouts from the better parts of town, who patrolled the stands, chased all the barefoot newsboys out. But they didn't chase me out. I went into Billy Laurette's room next to the hot dog stand and while he put on his make-up for the evening performance I engaged him in earnest conversation about all the places he had been. By the time he was ready to start to work, I pulled the bag of papers out from behind his big wooden trunk and began selling the Sun to the early comers who came to get a good seat. All these people were regular readers of the Sun who missed their paper if they didn't have it. So it was no trouble selling fifty to a hundred copies before the show started.

Then, when the band started to play, and the acts began to appear, I usually found a good place to see the show. I saw and heard "Show Boat" at five performances one year.

IF TRAPESE ACT FAILED

I recall, too, the antics of Billy Laurette, clown par excellence. Billy would have no special part in the show—but he worked into every part some way or other. He earned big belly-laughs by dropping his hat on the floor, then stooping over to pick it up, kicking it out of reach meanwhile. He would welcome young couples coming in with "My, my, my! Imagine, such a beautiful looking woman married to such a homely looking man."

The trapeze artist advertised a triple somersault in mid air. It usually took him two or three tries to make it. Billy Laurette would boast "If he don't do it, I WILL!" and thump his chest like a strong ape for emphasis. Then, in a subdued tone, he would add, "I hope he dooes it."

This year, the grandstand had no clown. Billy Laurette doesn't travel any more. I was told by grandstand performers who knew him that he slipped and fell at a performance down south and died and was buried at Jackson, Mississippi.

I wonder how many of our readers remember Billy Laurette!

The Horse As Food

(From Hamilton Spectator)

Horsemeat is pronounced to be a wholesome commodity when the animal has been well fed, is healthy, not too old and the slaughtering is done under approved sanitary conditions. The horse is one of the cleanest of creatures and, like the cow, is not a flesh eater. It is therefore, according to Federal food regulations, not illegal to sell horsemeat for human consumption provided the vendors plainly mark it as such and do not attempt to represent it as beef.

Where abuses might easily creep into this situation is in the sale of hamburger and processed meats. With the price of horsemeat on the hoof being many times lower than that of beef cattle, the opportunity for deception and unscrupulous profiteering is obvious. Scarcely any person but an expert can tell the difference between a platter of raw hamburger made of horsemeat and one composed wholly of beef .

The concern of food inspectors and public health authorities is evidence of official uneasiness. It also points to the doubtful wisdom of lowering long-established standards which were imposed originally in the face of much opposition and are the only protection afforded consumers.

Communists who have been convicted for "teaching forcible overthrow of United States government" are now crying that the rights they would destroy are being ignored by the courts who found them guilty.

Dear Sir—To you lousy punk in the green sedan who cut across the Nisku road in front of me at 7:15 p.m. Sunday; I had to jam on my brakes to avoid hitting you. As a result, my baby sleeping in the back seat was jerked to the floor and if any permanent injuries result to her I guarantee I'll hunt you down and this time I wont jam on my brakes. I'll jam my fist right into your nose. Don't you know enough not to pull onto a highway until you're sure there's nobody coming? Oh, you stupid punk! GERALD S.

ZOOT-SUITERS

Dear Sir—Your recent Zoot-Suiter vs. Serviceman illustration was ridiculous. The zoot-suit mobsters are largely juvenile delinquents who should be treated as such. Edmonton makes little provision for their welfare. When these boys become eighteen they'll likely join the army in order to see the world and wreck what they see.

Our armed services seem to consist of most of the riff-raff who can't hold a job anywhere else. Their conduct bears no resemblance to the well-respected uniforms of 1939-44, if the Wainwright camp is a fair example.

Decent citizens feel much safer at home when the army comes to town. They are a tough bunch and they've wrecked Wainwright and Vermilion to prove it. Let's turn them loose in Korea so we can call our towns our own again.

DISGUSTED.

FREIGHT RATES

Dear Sir—The federal government has introduced into parliament legislation to implement some of the recommendations of the Royal Commission on Transportation. Among the recommended measures is authority for the board of transport commissioners to equalize freight rates between the different areas of Canada, and provision for the interior of Western Canada to get part of the benefits of low "transcontinental" freight rates between the east and the west coast. It is understood that the legislation will not come up for final approval until this fall.

These recommendations would aid the people of Western Canada where freight rates were found to be out of line with those in other regions of Canada.

SMOKY LAKE WINS TOP HONORS IN BASEBALL

On July 2 a big crowd was on hand to enjoy baseball games between Andrew, Vilna, Spedden and Smoky Lake.

Smoky Lake won top honors and money.

The additonal bleachers added greatly to the comfort of the spectators. The Smoky Lake team did well by recording their two wins on a new electrically-operated scoreboard, donated by Mr. George Kozub.

Games played were as follows:

First game: Smoky Lake vs. Vilna. Smoky Lake won by a score of 8-2.

Second game: Andrew vs. Spedden. Speden won by a score of 6 to 3.

Final game: Smoky Lake vs. Spedden. Smoky Lake won by a score of 7-5. Spedden scored the first two runs of the game. Peter Melnyk's pitching for Smoky Lake was well-received by the crowd. After a lapse of a few innings, the game was tied 2-2 by a run brought in by George Halisky, Smoky Lake's short-stop. He also tied the score 5-5 by hitting a 2-bagger. From then on the boys did well and took the game.

Four players, Peter Govinchuk, Mike Socholowsky, Peter Ponich and George Halisky, left for St. Paul after the first game, to help Warspite win against Two Hills. They were back for the final game.

The Limestone Lake team won $25 first prize in the softball competition. Smoky Lake High School took $10 second, and Kipylew took third prize. The White Earth team defaulted their game by not appearing.

Oil Show Success Despite Poor Weather

Canada's first major Oil Show, held at Canada's Model Oil Town, Devon, Alberta, July 5th, 6th and 7th, was declared an outstanding success by leading oil supply and equipment firms. More than a million dollars worth of equipment, used in every phase of oil development was displayed by leading manufacturers from Canada and the United States.

Sporadic rain showers kept visitors down, but the 8,000 people who braved the weather elements and the muddy exhibit grounds were able to see for the first time the operation and machinery necessary for the development of Canada's vital oil line.

The Oil Show, which is to be an annual affair, was sponsored by the Devon Lions Club and a committee of oil men well known in Alberta. A month's preparation left no stone unturned in making sure that the visitors would learn the background of the oil terms, which are now a part of Alberta's daily language.

Entertainment sidelights included a carnival, dancing, and in an amphitheatre a variety show, an outstanding wrestling match and a top boxing card.

Education Program in Alberta Schools To Combat Narcotic Menace in Province

Education designed to make Alberta's youth aware of the menace of narcotics and abuse of liquor is being planned by the Department of Education.

According to an announcement by Education Minister Ivan Casey, an assistant supervisor of guidance with the department is being assigned to develop an Alberta school program related to alcohol and narcotic problems.

Miss Hanna Christofferson, former high school teacher at Cardston, Alta., will be responsible for the program.

It is the plan of the government to include a course in the school curriculum to acquaint school children with the dangers of liquor and drugs.

Authorities are becoming concerned with the spread of drug addiction among young people in Eastern Canada and the United States, and fear that such practices might spread here.

It was reported exclusively in The Edmonton Sun last week that an international narcotic syndicate is in operation engaged solely in trafficking drugs among youths.

In the East and the U.S., juvenile narcotic addiction has reached alarming proportions, and blame for the rapid spread of the drug habit among young people has been placed squarely on this gang.

According to a U.S. government investigating committee, the overlord of the international syndicate is Charles (Lucky) Luciano, former American vice king who was recently deported to his native Italy.

An educational program on narcotics would be similar to preventive medicine—it would be designed to halt the narcotic menace before it contaminated Alberta's youth.

Beat Wife, Police, Gets 8-Month Term

JASPER PLACE — Kitchener Winter, of Jasper Place, started an eight-month prison term Thursday for beating up his wife and a police constable.

He received two months for assaulting his wife and six months for striking Constable William Stranaghan with intent to escape.

It's Adults Who Appreciate Value of Good Education

CALGARY — (BUP) — Ever noticed that the people who say "Education is a wonderful thing," are almost always adults?

Sir Richard Livingstone, a former vice-chancellor of Oxford University, believes that "people really begin to get interested in education when they've seen something of life."

Adult education is the only road to a well-educated democracy, according to the British educator who stopped here during a 10-month lecture tour of the United States and Canada.

ADULT COLLEGES

England had a well-developed system of adult education and the response to it was good, he said. He added that since World War II there had been a unique development with the founding of a number of residential colleges for adults.

Some people could not get away for long periods of study, he said, and the result was many short courses, some designed for long week-ends.

Livingstone appraised the short courses with the comment that "You can't get a real insight into a subject in a short course, but you can get a good introduction to it."

Expansion Blamed For Phone Troubles

Edmonton's record - shattering growth has been blamed for many things, and now it has been blamed for the difficulties that have beset the Alberta Government Telephones long distance service.

Alfred Higgins, general manager, and W. J. Ragan, traffic superintendent, told a meeting of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce that new equipment is being installed by the AGT but as yet facilities are not great enough to handle the expanded long distance telephone business from Edmonton.

Businessmen in the capital city have complained that it is sometimes quicker to drive to the place at which they have business, rather than wait for the time it takes to get a long-distance call hrough.

BEARS LIKE GOLF COURSE

JASPER.—The championship golf course at Jasper Park Lodge now has an efficient bear chaser named "Wolf". Bears, it seems, can think of no better place to snatch a summer siesta than on Jasper's velvety greens. To eliminate this portable hazard, William H. Brinkworth, the greenskeeper, employs "Wolf", his three-year-old Collie dog, to worry the bears off the greens.

Golfers apparently do not mind the bear-meat hillocks, providing they're kept on the fairways.

Outdoor Theatre Unique For Alberta

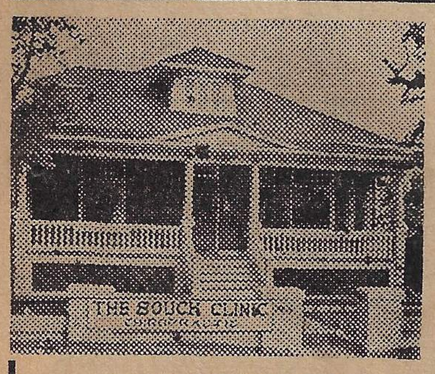

The only outdoor theatre outside of the urban centres of Alberta is in operation at Shorncliffe Lake near Czar, 140 miles southwest of Edmonton.

Presentations there are sponsored by the Czar Board of Trade, and films are usually supplied by the National Film Board.

Films are shown every Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

When in the city shop around the corner and save.

BRIEREVILLE NEWS NOTES

BRIEREVILLE — Farmers and housewives are very pleased these days, as there has been some nice rains this past week. And it really has made a difference in the looks of the crops and gardens.

Johnny Tesolin and Bud Whitford went to Edmonton last week to gain a little more experience in playing baseball. They returned home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Leno Caron and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tesolin took a motor trip last week. They went by Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge and on through the States of Montana, Washington and Idaho. Then came back to Canada through B.C. Going to Vancouver, they visited Stanley Park, where they enjoyed themselves very much. They then returned to Edmonton and back home. Mr. Caron reports they had no car trouble of any sort, which makes a very big difference in a trip like that.

Mr. Peter Henderson, of Cork, is visiting friends and relatives in this district for the past few days.

Mr. A. Gattoliat is busy making a box for a new truck that he bought. We have trucks and cars galore in this district. Approximately 75 per cent of this district's residents have a car or a truck. Mostly new models.

Due to rain during the last week-end, the first United Church service of this year was cancelled on Sunday. Rev. D. Greenough of Lac la Biche is to be clergman.

Little Jeannette Whelen has gone into Saskatchewan on her holidays. Best wishes, Jeannette.

Ball Team Takes Second Money

BREYNAT - WANDERING RIVER—Wandering River ball team have done very well lately, taking second money at Lac la Biche sports and coming in first at Wandering River sports.

Many families here had visitors over Sports Day. We hope they enjoyed themselves, despite poor weather.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Harrington, of Warham, and daughters Elaine, Ruth and Lynn, spent the week-end with their daughter, Jean, our district nurse. We are pleased to report that Elaine and Ruth will remain here for a month and hope they enjoy their holiday.

Miss Margaret Ries, R.N., district nurse at Grassland, spent Sunday in Wandering River.

Last Sunday a shower and barn dance was held at Kastiuk's barn in honor of Miss Annie Gawrelitz and Mr. Bob Haley, whose marriage is an event of this month. The bride received many lovely gifts and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. E. Ferguson, timber inspector, Mr. Pherrill, fire ranger, and Mr. J. Nigel, of Atmore, spent several days up north of here cruising timber." They report the mosquitos are terrible.

OIL MAKES A COUNTRY STRONG

"OIL NEEDS A LOT OF THINGS, JIMMY!"

"Tankers, Jimmy, are just one of the things the oil business needs. It needs supplies for pipe lines and new refineries. It needs tank cars and trucks and storage tanks. It needs workers and material from all parts of Canada."

Bringing you oil is a big job. It employs labor and skills and ideas across the nation. In the past five years Imperial Oil alone has undertaken to invest more than $200 millions—about $60 for every family in Canada. Much of this money has been spent to find and develop new oil fields in the prairies, fields which mean new prosperity and new security for all Canada. But almost half of it has been invested in new tankers and pipe lines, in new refining units and in facilities to bring the products to you.

With oil playing an increasingly important part in our daily lives, the oil industry's job is bringing new strength and better living for Canadians everywhere.

GOURIN—Mr. and Mrs. Jean Ulliac have arrived home from British Columbia, where they were visiting his brother, Jean Marie Ulliac, at Chilliwack. They enjoyed very much the fruit right from the trees, especially the cherries.

They visited Bowen Island by ship. They also stopped at Vancouver, New Westminster and Trail to visit friends and relatives.

They passed through the States on their way back, stopping at Calgary for the Stampede. They are glad to be back home without any accident.

Miss Cecile Bourassa is back from the hospital after an operation for appendicitis. She is feeling fine and is staying at her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Ulliac.

Parker-Croutze Pledge Vows

ATMORE—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Isadore's Church, Plamondon, on July 16, when Suzette Croutze became the bride of Preston G. Parker. Mrs. Octave Chevigny played the organ, while the sisters sang inspiring hymns in French and English. Rev. Father Ricard officiated.

The bride wore a floor length white satin gown covered by a delicate white netting. Her short chapel veil was held in place by a head wreath of lillies of the valley. She held a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Assisting the bride as bridesmaids were Iris Parker, sister of the groom in a pale blue floor-length dress and chapel veil and Patricia Ballard in a pink floor-length dress and pink chapel veil. The best men attending the groom were Dwight Parker, brother of the groom, and Roger Croutze.

After the ceremony a buffet style supper was served to about thirty relatives and friends.

In the evening a dance was held in the Atmore Community Hall. The "Northern Ramblers" supplied good music. It is believed there were at least three hundred attendants. The bride and groom were very thankful for the many and lovely gifts. They will make their home in Goose Lake.

LETTER TO LOUISA

True Values of Life Shouldn't Be Forgotten

DEAR LOUISA:—My father was a minister but I married a man who is in public life and I find it hard to reconcile his views and mine.

My father taught us to consider the good of all people and not just what rewards we ourselves might gain from the things we do. But my husband says that if he did that we would not have the nice home and luxuries that we are accustomed to. He says that the people who put him in office are people who own property and goods and that if he goes against their wishes and votes for controls of rent and goods, they will fight him and he will lose his job.

I can't help thinking of the poor people, who can't afford to pay more rent and who are living on the plainest of food now. Why are these men so selfish that they think of nothing but the few dollars they can pile up and never of the good of their country and its people?

Please publish this letter.

CONFUSED.

Answer: It is passing strange how selfish the majority of people are and how shortsighted. What does it matter if a man piles up millions and then his country is ruined by graft and unfair taxation?

What does it matter how much money these men have if they ruin the economy of the country and we have a depression?

Nevertheless, we have the spectacle of hundreds of lobbyists in Ottawa bringing pressure on our law-makers to further their own little schemes for their own particular little groups. They seem completely oblivious of the danger this country is facing and, instead of bending every effort to conserve and build our resources so that we may defend ourselves when the fatal day arrives, they think only of the immediate profits they can gouge from the public.

And what of the men who represent the people of this country? Are they refusing to be influenced by these groups and voting according to their consciences and for the general welfare?

Well, hardly! With a mere handful of exceptions, they are playing politics as usual. The majority of them have only one thought in mind when they cast their votes and it is just how many votes will this mean for them the next time they run.

Who is to blame for the state of affairs? The answer is quite simple. We are.

We, the people, are so easily led by people who can finance a good propaganda machine during elections that we fail to study men and issues and find the real issues. Too often the men who have stood their ground and voted for the good of the people are thrown out of office by those very people they tried to help.

It is time for every man and woman to wake up and tackle this privilege of voting intelligently.

LOUISA.

Claims Wheat Price Hike Won't Boost Bread Prices

WINNIPEG — (BUP) — A spokesman for farm groups seeking an increase of 21 cents a bushel in the price of wheat has estimated the price increase would hike bread prices only fractionally.

J. L. Phelps, president of the Saskatchewan Farmers' Union, said the wheat price increase would add only .377 cents to the cost of a 20-ounce loaf.

The presidents of the three prairie farmers' unions recently met with the Board of Grain Commissioners and the Canadian Wheat Board to discuss handling and marketing of grain.

"We are not going to ask for full parity price on agreement sales because we don't want to penalize foreign countries for inflation in Canada," Phelps said. "But we do want an agreed floor price based on a percentage of parity."

Similar requests were refused by the wheat board last fall and the federal government this spring.

Summer Training For Air Cadets

Nearly 2,000 Air Cadets from 90 Royal Canadian Air Cadet squadrons in western Canada will undergo annual summer training at Abbotsford, B.C., this summer, it was announced by the Air Cadet Liaison Office at North West Air Command, Edmonton. Cadets from the Lakehead area, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia will attend the RCAF sponsored camp in two periods of two weeks each from July 22 to August 18.

The cadets will take over RCAF Station Abbotsford from the RCAF Reserve who, for the past two weeks, have been undergoing annual summer training there. More than 1,600 officers and airmen of the 16 RCAF Reserve units in western Canada have been carrying out mock battle exercises at Abbotsford.

DEMONSTRATION HELD UNDER HOMEMAKERS' CLUB

WASKATENAU — Seventeen members and visitors gathered at Mrs. Scott's home for the demonstration held under the Homemakers' Club.

Miss Bartman, having previously prepared the materials as far as was possible, was able to demonstrate the making of six separate supper dishes. These were made up, for the most part, of materials available on the farm and, when sampled, proved very tasty. Miss Bartman talked on food values and distributed some excellent booklets.

The services of the Home Economist are free, and anyone may write to Miss Bartman, at St. Paul, for advice on any problem relating to food, clothing or furnishing in the home.

First, Ukrainian Women's Association, $12.00; second, S. L. Locker, $7.00; third, Our Pensioners, $3.00; fourth, three bikes, $1.00 each.

The farmers won the tug-o'-war against the townsmen. Bingo and races were also held.

Jean Louise Smith Weds At Boyle

BOYLE—St. Paul's Anglican Church of Boyle was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday, July 6, in the marriage of Jean Louise Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Boyle, to James Patterson, Calgary. Canon Humphries solemnized the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown fashioned with a net yoke complemented by pearls, and lily point sleeves. The bouffant skirt fell en train from a fitted waistline. Her fingertip veil fell softly about her face from a bandeau of love birds, and she wore as her only jewellery a pearl necklace. She carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis. The flower girl was Barbara Dunsby, wearing a floor length dress of blue net and matching headpiece. The ring bearer was Leroy Mellott.

Her only attendant was Nora McNamara, who wore a green gown of embroidered organdy and net with matching mittens and headdress. She carried a colonial bouquet of talisman roses and pink carnations. R. J. Page of Calgary was best man, and ushering the guests were Messrs. Lewis Smith and Clarke Mellott.

Music for the wedding was played by Miss Shirley Harmata, and soloist for the occasion was Miss Doreen Eide.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith chose a navy dress complemented with white, wearing red roses en corsage.

Later at a reception at the bride's uncle, Mr. Harry Dunsby, the bride's table was centered with a tiered wedding cake. The toast to the bride was proposed by R. J. Page.

Leaving for a honeymoon to Calgary and Banff, the bride changed to a teal blue suit topped with a white shortie coat. Her accessories were red and white. Later the newlyweds will live in Peace River.

Directors Declare Fair Most Successful on Record

Officials of the Edmonton Exhibition have declared this year's fair the most successful on record, as crowds thronged to the Exhibition Grounds throughout the week in record-breaking numbers.

Despite poor weather during part of the week, record-breaking attendance was chalked up.

Other records were broken, too, in the variety of entertainment being offered.

MAMMOTH PARADE

The Parade of Progress, organized by a committee headed by Ald. Bill Hawrelak, was the first Exhibition parade held in Edmonton since 1939.

Over 200 floats participated in the spectacle, which extended for three miles and took over an hour to pass any given point.

Crowds lined the parade's route for 25 blocks. People packed the sidewalks five deep, and buildings along the parade route were crowded with spectators. It is estimated a crowd of 100,000 people watched the pageant.

Parade was headed by an official car, and was followed by various floats and entries, including one from The Edmonton Sun.

During the parade four Mitchell bombers from the City of Edmonton 418 Reserve Squadron flew low overhead, along with a Vampire jet fighter plane.

Monday afternoon Exhibition Park became alive with thousands of visitors. A new attendance record of 34,339, compared with 28,891, took in the opening day's festivities.

The six-day horse racing meet, being held in conjunction with the Exhibition ,also attracted thousands of citizens. New records were set in the pari-mutuel betting, despite the fact racing was cancelled Wednesday due to the condition of the track.

Monday night members of the Edmonton press and radio toured the Royal American Midway, guests of the management.

VARIED FEATURES

Features at the Midway this year were more varied than ever, with 18 feature attractions and 22 rides.

Most popular feature appeared to be the Harlem in Havana presentation, with the Moulin Rouge a close second.

Both musical presentations, Harlem in Havana was exclusively a Negro production, with Moulin Rouge carrying a French theme throughout its performance.

One of the most interesting features of the side-shows were the Siamese twin babies, two little Negro girls from Los Angeles.

INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITS

Other features enjoyed by Exhibition visitors were the many industrial exhibits, presented by national and local business firms and organizations.

All types of industrial equipment, cars, and manufactured products were on display.

Of interest to women visitors were the handicrafts and home-cooking displays.

Some of the most interesting personalities on the Midway were demonstrator-salesmen, who set themselves up in booths, and sold all manner of gadgets.

GRANDSTAND SHOW

The new $1,000,000 grandstand, which was officially opened Monday night by Lieut.-Gov. Hon. J. J. Bowlen, was packed every night this week for the grandstand show.

Entertaining features of the show included comedy and dance routines, a walking dog act, and a spectacular act in which a girl was shot out of a cannon.

The Cavalcade of Hits featured the Marcus Troupe, a clever five-person juggling act; the Hollywood Scandals, a new type dog act; Chuck Brown and Rita, comedy team; the Three Reddingtons, comedy trampolinists; the Marimba Co-Eds; Novak and Fay, a comedy acrobatic team; Buster West and Lucille Page, another entertaining comedy team, and "Miss Victory," the girl who is shot out of a cannon.

Throughout the performance a chorus of 16 girls presents a variety of entertaining dances.

The spectacular cannon act is performed by Miss Egle Zacchini, daughter of Edmond Zacchini, originator of the idea.

A colorful display of fireworks was held every night following the grandstand performance.

Accidents and injuries were few throughout the week, although the St. John Ambulance Corps treated several people for minor injuries every day.

Directors of the Exhibition, including managing director James Paul and president H. W. J. Maddison, have termed this year's fair the most successful on record.

The LIGHTER SIDE

Good Idea

"That's a good idea, ma'am, having soda water in them bottles with squirts. I've done the kitchen floor with them in no time, and there's three left out of the dozen."

A Bargain

The decrepit old car rattled and chugged to the toll gate and came to a stop with a mechanical gasp.

The attendant, after counting the passengers, requested the appropriate fee—"two dollars for the car?"

"Sold!" cried the happy driver.

Eye-Opener

Landlord: "How did you find the room?"

Guest: "Terrible! I didn't close an eye all night!"

"That's your own fault, sir. If you want to sleep you must close your eyes."

Poor Boob!

Benuik-Happner Pledge Vows

CRAIGEND — The Craigend Greek Catholic Church was decked with bouquets of apple blossoms and gladiolus on Thursday, July 12, for a bridal in which Miss Adeline Happner became the bride of Mr. Peter Benuik.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Happner and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Benuik, all of Craigend. Rev. Lozinski performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of satin with set-in lace patterns, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and fittted bodice with lily point sleeves. Her floor-length veil fell from a tiara and she carried a bouquet of pink and red roses with lilies-of-the-valley surrounding a white orchid. Her only jewellery was a rhinestone necklace and earrings, a gift from the groom.

Attending her were Miss Loveth Bakay and Miss Denise Gervais. Both bridesmaids wore yellow net over taffeta gowns, complemented with matching chapel veils, gloves and bouquets of roses, carnations and lilies-of-the-valley.

For a flower girl, the bride chose Shirley Benuik, niece of the groom, who wore a net over taffeta white frock with matching net gloves and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Best men were Mr. John Ivin Benuik, brother of the groom, and Mr. Alden Happner, brother of the bride. Ushering was Mr. Steve Wowk. Little Morris Tokarek was flower boy.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Happner chose a green lace frock with matching accessories and a Talisman rose corsage.

Mrs. Benuik, mother of the groom, wore a pale blue afternoon frock with matching accessories.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to 75 guests at the home of the bride's parents, when a toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. George Tokarek.

The bride's table was centred with a triple-tiered wedding cake flanked by slender white tapers and bouquets of iris, daises and peonies.

Lac La Biche W.I. Meeting

LAC LA BICHE — The regular WI meeting was held at the Dr. Swift School, Thursday, July 12, with 28 members and four visitors present.

Since Mrs. Lee was guest speaker, just the main topics of business were attended to. Mrs. J. Williams was elected as delegate to the District Conference at Boyle. Plans were made for transportation and members who wish to attend please inform Mrs. Lett as soon as possible.

Mrs. Lee gave a very interesting outline on being a WI member and covered points of interest to expect in making reports for the Conference, mainly the difference between Social Welfare and Social Service, also of prizes to be given on the handicraft display.

Mrs. Lemay was the lucky winner of the door prize.

The meeting closed with "God Save the King," followed by two piano solos by Mrs. A. Griswold and a delicious lunch.

After the meeting several members escorted the visitors, Mrs. Bowerman, Mrs. Love, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Lee, all of Boyle, on a tour of the public library which is sponsored by the WI.
